God the Father Revealed in the Holy Scriptures

God reveals himself as Person "I am who I am," or "the One-Who-is" Ex 3:14. This God-who-is Person is the only one who really is. Everything else exists only inasmuch as God wills it to exist. God is holy, that is, totally different from all creation. There is no other like God. He is unique. Thus, it is not possible to imagine Him with our thoughts, or to portray Him in any material way: "You shall not make for yourself an idol" Ex 20:4. In contrast to lifeless idols, the true God lives. Lacking appropriate words to express the mystery of God's life, Holy Scripture often makes use of anthropomorphisms, thereby applying to God the behavioural traits of a living human being: God loves, converses, assists, pities, is sad, becomes angry, does battle, punishes...

My dear brothers and sisters in Jesus Christ!

My thanks to all of you

From the depths of my heart I want to express to all of you my sincere gratitude for your love and generosity you have shown in monetary terms, giving me a gift of love. May the loving and merciful Lord Jesus Christ accept your good intention and generosity as the prayer of your soul and reward you with good health, happiness and His divine blessing, and in eternity may give all of us His salvation.

Fr. Vasyly
