Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB): "Voting as Catholics – 2019 Federal Election Guide"

Voting: A Right and Responsibility: Canadian Catholics are being called upon as citizens to exercise their right to vote. The Church encourages and reasserts its belief in "the political freedom and responsibility of citizens."¹ By exercising their right to vote, citizens fulfil their duty of choosing a government and at the same time send a clear signal to the candidates being presented by their political parties for election. The important time leading up to an election also provides Canadians with the opportunity to interact with fellow voters, one's neighbours, and the candidates themselves (particularly during their visits to neighbourhoods), raising awareness about the values, views, and concerns shared by Catholics across the country.

The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) has published the "Voting as Catholics – 2019 Federal Election Guide". To view the pdf of this guide please go to the following link:

"When people say the Rosary together, it is far more formidable to the devil, than one said privately. Because in this public prayer, it is an army that is attacking him. He can often overcome the prayer of an individual, but if this prayer is joined to other Christians, the devil has much more trouble in getting the best of it."-St Louis de Montfort.
