Members of a small prayer group have requested to use St. George's Church once or twice a month to hold prayers in their language and cultural tradition. They are Eastern Catholics who belong to the Syro-Malabar Rite (from India). Their prayer sessions will be booked around St. George's schedule as to avoid any overlapping of services. We welcome these families to worship in our beautiful and prayer-inspiring Church. To see the liturgy of the Syro-Malabar Rite, go to: Google, in the search bar type: Syro-Malabar Malayalam Mass, and click on videos tab. There will be many selections to choose from. They usually begin with the rosary, followed by liturgy.

Fr. Andrei
