Gospel Reflection, John 1:43-51:

The call of the Apostles Philip and Nathaniel is the focus of today's reading. Philip answered Jesus' call right away. Nathaniel, on the other hand, was reluctant to follow Jesus. When Philip asked him to come and follow Jesus of Nazareth, Philip's famous response was, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Faith, for some, comes easy. Faith for others requires a journey. Regardless of which category we personally fit in, faith is always a challenge. Sometimes we question ourselves in what we do in our personal lives. Sometimes we question the Church or our Faith especially when we can't wrap our head around something. Nevertheless, always remember that God will never abandon us, regardless of where our journey takes us.
